AN ACT

To amend section 111, title 18, of the Code of the District of Columbia, with respect to designation of deputy clerks by the clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia.

December 15, 1941
[H. R. 5377]
[Public Law 341]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 111, title 18, of the Code of the District of Columbia, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

District of Columbia,
D. C. Code § 11-401.

“SEC. 111. OATH; BOND; DEPUTY CLERKS.—The clerk of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia shall take the oath and give bond, with security, in the manner prescribed by law for the clerks of the district courts of the United States. The said clerk shall have power to appoint deputy clerks and other necessary employees, and may assign any of the deputy clerks in his office to duty in the said general or special terms of the court, except in the probate term. Any of the duties of the clerk may be performed in his name by any of the deputy clerks, and such deputies may sign the name of the clerk to any process, certificate, and other official act required by law or by the practice of the court to be performed by the clerk, and may authenticate said signature by affixing the seal of the court thereto when the seal is necessary to its authentication. In such cases the signature shall be—

Clerk of U. S. District Court.

Power to appoint deputy clerks.

Assignment of duties.

“_____, Clerk.
“By _____, Deputy clerk.”

Approved, December 15, 1941.
